

SEMINAR

Understanding Water Security in Cities: empirical evidence and policy implications

May 29th, 2017

Cancun International Convention Center – Cozumel 5: 17.20 – 18.50

OPENING

(10')

- José Carrera
Vice President of Social Development
CAF, Development Bank of Latin America

PRESENTATION

(30')

- Water Security in 26 Cities of Latin America and the Caribbean
Abel Mejía, Senior Advisor
CAF, Development Bank of Latin America
- The challenge of Water Security under climate change uncertainties
Andrea Erickson, Water Director General
The Nature Conservancy
- Sao Paulo lessons: Water Security and drought control
José Francisco de Proença, Superintendent of Maintenance
SABESP

PANEL

(45')

Moderator: Moira Paz-Estenssoro (tbc)

- Peter Gleick, co-founder, President Emeritus
Pacific Institute
- Diego Rodriguez, Senior Economist at the Water Global Practice
Water Global Practice, World Bank
- Gary Harol Suarez, Managing Director of Water and Sanitation
Water and Climate Ministry, Bolivia
- Fernando Miralles, Director
Earth System Science Interdisciplinary Center, NASA/NOAA

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

(5')

- Victor Arroyo, Director of Innovative Operations and Knowledge Management
CAF, Development Bank of Latin America