

MAINSTREAMING CLIMATE ACTION WITHIN FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Highlighting Five Voluntary
Principles

16:45 – 17:00

Introduction

Anne Paugam, CEO, Agence Française de Développement (AFD), and Rachel Kyte, VP of World Bank Group

Setting the stage, background and highlighting the importance of Mainstreaming in the step up of climate finance - linked to the political efforts in the COP 21 negotiations.

17:00 – 17:50

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Mr. Matteo Maggiore, Head of Communications, European Investment Bank (EIB) – Moderator

Luis Enrique Berrizbeitia, Executive Vice-President of CAF -development bank of Latin America- Presentation of the 5 Principles and Emerging Practices Paper

Jonathan Taylor, EIB Vice-President - Climate & Environment
Presentation of the Mainstreaming work plan - 2016 and beyond

Astrid Puentes, Co-Director of the Interamerican Association for Environmental Defense (AIDA) Presentation of Stakeholders' view on the Principles Mr.

Eric Chevre, Global Head of Financial Institutions Group, Crédit Agricole CIB
Commercial Financial Institution's view on Principles

Manuel Pulgar-Vidal, Minister of State for Environment, Peru (tbc)
Usefulness of Principles to public financial institutions

17:50 – 18:10

Q&A

18.10 - 18:15

Clausura

Matteo Maggiore, Head of Communications, EIB

For further information please contact the event co-hosts:

Ubaldo Elizondo (uelizondo@caf.com), CAF -development bank of Latin America-

Mathias Zoellner (m.zoellner@eib.org) and Nancy Saich (n.saich@eib.org), EIB

Andrea Rodriguez (arodriguez@aida-americas.org), AIDA